

AN EXCELLENT STEWARD
The Stewardship of Time
Eccl. 2:4-3:14

*"But I trust in you, O Lord; I say, You are my God. My times are in your hands."
Psalm 31:14-15*

A cluttered life confuses activity with accomplishment. 2:4-11

The temptation of busyness is success

The trap of busyness is unfulfilled expectations

A cluttered life produces false security in the things we acquire. 2:7-10

Material possessions promise happiness but produce more clutter.

Do you own your things, or do they own you???

A cluttered life leads to discouragement and depression. 2:11, 17

From fatigue to frustration to failure to..."I hate my life."

A cluttered life is overcome by good stewardship of time. 3:1-14

Good stewardship allows God to organize our time. 3:1

Good stewardship allows God to evaluate our time. 3:9-12

Good stewardship allows God to reward our time 3:13-14
